

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of entry 07/01/2013

At the invitation and with the consent of the University of Massachusetts Dartmouth (UMass Dartmouth) Police Department, the below-listed Special Agent (SA) was present inside and around Pine Dale Hall, Room 7341, UMass Dartmouth, 285 Old Westport Road, North Dartmouth, Massachusetts, to observe officers of that Department (Captain Timothy Sheehan and Detective Ernie Belliveau) inventory and package for storage personal property abandoned within the dorm room by former student DZHOKHAR TSARNAEV.

At approximately 9:43 a.m., Captain Sheehan and Detective Belliveau entered the locked dorm room, thereafter recording their work with a video camera. Preliminary to undertaking an inventory of and packaging Tsarnaev's property, the officers removed from the room and disposed of various articles of food and liquid which had spoiled.

The SA observed that the left side of the room, formerly occupied by UMass Dartmouth student ANDREW DWINELLS, contained only university-owned furniture, but that the right side of the room, formerly occupied by Tsarnaev, contained numerous and varied articles of clothing, shoes, notebooks, papers, luggage, containers, bedding, a television, a refrigerator, and other articles of personal property, in addition to a similar complement of university furniture. Among this property, the SA observed the following items:

1. A notebook, with black and white exterior and labeled "Chem. Nutrition Dzhokhar," containing handwritten notes;
2. A notebook, with rust-colored exterior, containing handwritten notes pertaining to Chemistry;
3. An opened ten-pack container of AAA batteries with eight batteries remaining;
4. A pair of black Ray Ban sunglasses, resembling the Wayfarer model;
5. A notebook, yellow in exterior and bearing the name Dzhokhar, containing handwritten Chemistry notes;
